JUVENILE COURT

Bill Intending to Save Young Criminals From Penitentiaries Is Upheld.

LEGAL QUESTION DISCUSSED.

Judge Fox Says Act Is in Perfect Harmony With Duty of Publie in Promoting Good Citizenship.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 9.-The Missour Supreme Court in banc to-day, in an opinion by Judge James D. Fox, upheld the validity of the Juvenile Court bill passed at the last session of the Legislature and intended to save the young criminal class from being sent to penitentiaries, where they associate with the hardened crim

The case at bar was the conviction of James Loving of Kansas City of petit larceny and the sentencing of him to two rears in the reform school.

A writ of habeas corpus was sued out by his mother, the boy being but 8 years old, and the case was brought to the Supreme Court to test the validity of the Judge Fox, in his opinion, says: "This act is in perfect harmony with the important duty of the public in promoting good citizenship. It is not only the duty the law-making power owes the public good citizenship. It is not only the duty the law-making power owes the public to provide for the application of certain remedies which will tend to reform and at the same time protect the neglected and delinquent children, but it is a clear right which that branch of the government can and should air."

"We have thus given expression to our views upon the questions involved in this proceeding. We have reached the conclusion that the act before us is a valid exercise of the legislative power under the Constitution of this State. While this conclusion is reached, the question as to the constitutionality of the bill is not without doubt, but, following the well-settled doctrine upon this subject, all reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the validity of the act. This we have done in this case. We highly commend the spirit manifested by members of the bar in the presentations of the questions involved.

"It was simply a legal proposition, discussed upon a high plane and for the sole and unselfish purpose of obtaining a judicial expression upon the validity of an act in which the public has a deep interest. We have declared the act valid. Its proper and successful enforcement depends largely upon the people and upon the conduct of the legal profession of the cittes and counties to which it applies. If its provisions are enforced with the same spirit that has prevailed in the submissions and discussion of the question involved, then there is no longer any doubt as to the benefits to be derived from this act by the children, their parents and the public."

The boy was remanded into the custody of Sheriff Gilday, all Judges concurring in public."

The boy was remanded into the custody of Sheriff Gilday, all Judges concurring in the opinion.
